

WYOMING COUNTY

4-H E-NEWS

JUNE 23, 2023

Please do not hesitate to reach out to any of us with your question(s)!

Congratulations to all of our high school senior members that are graduating this weekend!
We wish you the best of luck with your future endeavors.

DAIRY SHOWING AND FITTING CLINIC

- Monday, July 10th at 6:30 PM at the Wyoming County Fairgrounds
- The Dairy Committee has secured a highly experienced fitter and showman to lead our clinic. The clinic will cover topics of show ring etiquette, show equipment, and proper fitting. Youth need to wear closed toed shoes as we will be leading animals around the ring!
- We will also be holding a Show White Exchange. Families can bring outgrown show whites and share with other 4-H families.

GOAT SHOWING AND FITTING CLINIC

- Saturday, July 8th at 9:30 AM at the Wyoming County Fairgrounds
- Youth will learn about the fundamentals of preparing a meat goat and dairy goat for the show ring. We will practice leading, setting up, and special maneuvers with the goats.
- Following the clinic, we are asking families to stay and help clean and paint our goat stands. We would like to give them a new fresh look for the upcoming fair! All help would be greatly appreciated.

GOAT TROPHY SPONSORS NEEDED

- We are looking for sponsors for a few goat trophies. We currently need two meat goat, and one dairy goat trophy to be sponsored for the 2023 Wyoming County Fair. Please contact the 4-H office or Stephanie if you have any questions or would like to sponsor these classes. Thank you!

RIDER EVALUATIONS

- 4-H'ers who are new or need to move up a riding level must complete a rider evaluation to participate at the Wyoming County Fair! There is only one opportunity left:
 - Saturday June 24th, 9am at Diana Henry's home, Bliss
