CELEBRATING DAIRY MONTH IN WYOMING COUNTY

by: Caron Gala

As we celebrate Dairy Month, we proudly recognize the exceptional 4-H programs that connect youth with the dairy industry. Across Wyoming County, young people are gaining hands-on experience—whether it's making ice cream in a bag or exploring different milk types through Agriculture in the Classroom, or diving into cow anatomy and dairy feed during 4-H Dairy Bowl practices. Many even showcase their animals at the Wyoming County Fair, demonstrating both skill and dedication. We're especially proud of our 4-H Dairy Bowl team, who represented us at the state level with great pride and knowledge. Congratulations to each of them!

Wyoming County is also home to generations of dairy innovators—producers shaping the future of dairy in diverse ways and at every scale. There's no other place in New York—or even the country—quite like ours when it comes to the variety and vision of dairy business models. Each producer brings something unique to the table, and we thank them all.

So, whether you're a producer, hauler, teacher, mom, dad, or community member—thank you for being part of this incredible dairy community. You help create a strong local economy, provide nutritious food, and make Wyoming County a place of warm friendships and lasting connections.

This month, Wyoming County Cooperative Extension is also celebrating growth. We've expanded our team to better serve the community in Dairy in the Classroom, 4-H livestock, food systems, STEM, and communications.

Please welcome our new team members:

- Sarah Cox, our new Ag in the Classroom/4-H Educator, is supported by Dairy in the Classroom, several school districts, and additional grant funding. Sarah shares: "I am thrilled to be joining the Wyoming County Cooperative Extension Team as the new Ag in the Classroom/4-H Educator. My passion and experiences within the industry will add to this already amazing team. I recently graduated from the University of Nebraska - Lincoln with a degree in Agricultural Economics and Animal Science. While there, I explored the beef and equine industries across the Midwest. But my roots are here—I was an active 4-H youth in Wyoming County, and I wouldn't be who I am today without it. I believe the future of agriculture lies in today's youth, and I look forward to building strong relationships with local school districts to get kids excited about ag. As always, my goal is 'To Make the Best Better,' and I'm excited to work with everyone in the months ahead."
- Laura Berkemeier, our graphic designer, enhances our communication with compelling visual storytelling.

Happy Dairy Month to everyone in our dairy community. Thank you for your dedication to agriculture, education, and the values that make Wyoming County shine.

Congratulations Class of 2025!

In celebration of our graduating high school seniors, we are again offering our enrolled 4-H members commemorative 4-H cords.

Cords are sponsored by the Wyoming County 4-H Leaders' Association.

Please email wyoymingcounty4h@cornell.edu to reserve cords and make arrangements for pick up during office hours.

2025 TOP FUNDRAISER SELLERS

Leigha Metz ($1,396)

Emma Johnson ($1,116)

Destiny Barrett ($1,105)

Thank you to everyone who helped make this year's 4-H Fundraiser Sale a success!

Thank you to the 161 4-H'ers who took the time to sell cookies, local maple products and snack sticks in support of our countywide fundraiser. Thank you also to the many 4-H club leaders who helped in the handling and distribution of goods. And finally, thank you to our 4-H Fundraiser Chairs; Bonnie Bowman, Sandy Brick, Kristen Hess, Robin Hobin, and Amy Sterry. These ladies put in many hours collecting and counting money and paperwork! Without their support, the sale would not be possible!!

As a reminder, our annual fundraiser sale serves as our countywide fundraiser for the Wyoming County 4-H Leaders' Association with proceeds from this sale supporting numerous opportunities for 4-H members and volunteers. This includes a variety of educational award trips, supplemental 4-H project materials used by leaders and members, club teaching materials, National 4-H Week support, 4-H member and leader pins, scholarships for 4-H leaders to attend specialized trainings, and other program incentives. Proceeds from the fundraiser sale are used to purchase public presentation prizes, support activities at the county fair, supplement the cost of our annual recognition night, and pay for youths and adults to stay in the dorms at the New York State Fair.

Thank you again to those who supported this year's Wyoming County 4-H Fundraiser Sale! If you have not participated in this annual fundraiser - we encourage families to do so! We could not offer the breadth of programming for our youth without fundraising!

If you have constructive feedback on how to continue to improve our annual countywide fundraiser, please don't hesitate to contact a 4-H staff member, a 4-H Leaders' Association officer, or one of our 4-H Fundraiser Chairmen.

2025 CLOTHING REVUE RESULTS

The stage was set on Friday evening, May 9th at the Ag & Business Center for the annual Wyoming County 4-H Clothing Revue. This year's theme was "Sew...Make Your Statement!"

Participation in the 4-H clothing and textiles project builds self-esteem, develops a sense of accomplishment, and allows youth to express their individuality by tapping into their personal creativity! On April 17th and 26th eleven 4-H members had their sewing projects evaluated on all aspects of clothing construction including choice of fabric, sewing, and finishing details, as well as fit in preparation for the revue. 4-H members participated in the evening's revue on May 9th, which featured a fashion show with twenty garments modeled by those members who completed a clothing project. 4-H'ers modeled an array of garments including aprons, dresses, and pajama pants and shirts. The 4-H'ers had a chance to model on stage while being evaluated on fit, poise, posture, and style of the item they had sewn.

The following 4-H members received recognition and the chance to move onto the district clothing revue hosted by Chautauqua County on Saturday, June 21st and the Fashion Revue at the Great New York State Fair: Kennedy Francis of Houghton, Vera Cooper of Arcade, Tenley Harris of Linwood, Leah Jones of Warsaw, Ruby Phelps of Pavilion, Addyson Blaisdell of Pavilion, Bryanna Wozniak of Warsaw, Lucy Benedict of Caledonia, Emma Johnson of Attica, Caroline Beckendorf of Fillmore, and Amelia Lambert of Farmersville Station.

Congratulations to all clothing revue participants

WNY District Youth Lead Amongst New York State Dairy Bowl Competitors

[Wyoming County, NY – April 29, 2025] – The 4-H Dairy Bowl competition engages youth across the state, providing a platform for learning and showcasing knowledge about New York's number 1 agricultural industry - dairy. The competition stems from coaching and knowledge cultivated around the state through county extension office 4-H dairy programs. The competitions are tailored for youth ages 8 to 19 who are passionate about a variety of dairy industry topics.

Participants in the Dairy Bowl compete in “quiz bowl” format, where teams of four answer questions posed by a moderator, earning points accordingly. The 4-H Dairy Quiz Bowl offers individual youth the chance to compete by answering questions that cover topics like dairy nutrition, milk quality, herd health, breeding and genetics, and industry-related current events. The competitions are open to teams, divided into age divisions: the junior division for participants under 14 and the senior division for those 14 and older, with specific eligibility criteria in place. 4-H also offers quiz bowls in addition to other educational opportunities for young people to learn about horses, goats, and other types of livestock and food production without needing to be on the farm.

The State Dairy Bowl Contest which is held each year in April at Cornell University is organized by Deborah Grusenmeyer, Senior Extension Associate, PRO-DAIRY, Animal Science. Deborah collaborates and works closely with county 4-H Extension educators by providing educational material, resources, and guidance. Locally, Mrs. Grusenmeyer collaborates with local 4-H educators like CCE Wyoming County 4-H Educator, Stephanie Czerniak.

The competitive yet supportive environment fosters teamwork, alertness, self-confidence, and mastery of dairy science. Hayden Ayers, a participant from Wyoming County, shared, “Dairy Bowl has been a great opportunity for me to learn more about the dairy industry as a whole. It has also allowed me to meet kids across the state who share the same passion for dairy that I do and create lifelong friendships.”

“I am grateful to Will Herrick for all the time he dedicates to coaching Dairy Bowl. His commitment is what has allowed me and our teams to be so successful in our competitions!” Hayden continued.

Results from the Western NY District from the state competition were as follows:

Western District Beginner Team: 1st Place Overall

- Evan Mierzwa, Chautauqua - 1st Place Individual
- Westyn Bruyer, Chautauqua – 2nd Place Individual

ATTENTION CLOVERBUD LEADERS

★ Please bring your Cloverbud projects to be displayed at the County Fair on Friday, August 8, 2025.

★ Note: Cloverbuds have special exhibit tags which are available at the 4-H office.

★ Cloverbuds ARE required to fill out a voucher for youth building exhibits. The special exhibit tag for cloverbuds will still be in use.

★ Projects need to be picked up on Saturday, August 16th between 4-8PM or Sunday, August 17th from 12-2PM.

Cloverbud's and Animal Projects

The Wyoming County 4-H program does allow cloverbuds to exhibit small animal projects (poultry, rabbits and cavy) and leadline horses at the Wyoming County Fair. These projects should be animals that the youth members own and care for on a regular basis, beginning by at least June. Cloverbuds who wish to bring a small animal to fair can choose one poultry animal, one rabbit/cavy, or one each of poultry and rabbit.

Cloverbud exhibitors will bring their project animals to fair just like older exhibitors on the day their species arrives and house them at the fairgrounds for the entire duration of the fair. Cloverbud members will be expected to care for their project animals each day at the fair. Depending on how many entries we receive, cloverbuds may be asked to take animals home after the show.

When it comes time for showing cloverbud small animals, keep in mind there is no competition. This opportunity is provided for cloverbuds to be able to experience bringing small animals to the fair, caring for them, and learning about how to show for the future. On show day for each particular species, cloverbuds will have the opportunity for a “mock show” where they will do showmanship with a volunteer. In order to prepare for this, we highly encourage each cloverbud exhibitor to attend a poultry or rabbit club meeting/showmanship clinic.

Cloverbud exhibitors WILL NEED to fill out a regular animal fair entry form and turn in to the 4-H office by July 15th. Please contact the 4-H office with questions or for more details.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 5TH
5:30PM

Dairy, Livestock & Small Animal Exhibitors: come on out and help spruce up the barns before the fair starts! Bring shovels, brooms, rakes, pitchforks, wheelbarrows, etc.

If your club has a specific project you would like to do, call the 4-H office to let Holly know!

Please keep in mind that Tuesday, August 5th is our 4-H Barn Clean-Up. We would appreciate everyone's help in getting general cleanup done before clubs and individuals start setting up displays. With that said – exhibitors may start setting up after 7pm on Tuesday, August 5th. Also keep in mind that we really can't have people "working" in the barns all hours of the night. It is 4-H's responsibility to turn out the lights and lock things up the best we can each night. Please be respectful of these requests. Thank you in advance!

ATTENTION
DAIRY, HORSE AND LIVESTOCK PARENTS!

It is recommended that rabies shots also be given to goats and hogs. The vaccine must be given within the last 12 months. When a booster shot is given to a previously vaccinated animal, the shot must be given prior to coming to the fair.
2. Animals must be free of all contagious diseases such as ringworm, warts, mange, orf, respiratory infections and contagious hoof infections. Warts must be removed and healed prior to coming to fair.
3. Cattle, Sheep, Goats and Swine must be identified by USDA approved official identification. Call the 4-H office if you have any questions about acceptable forms of ID.
4. For New York State animals, certificate of veterinary inspection (CVI) is required. This is a health chart (Form AI 61). The CVI is often referred to as "health papers" or "health certificate." This chart must be completed on or after May 1st of the current year. All animals, even those under 3 months of age, need to be individually identified and included on the health chart.
5. Tuberculosis testing on New York State cattle will not be required.
6. A signed written statement from the attending veterinarian is required as proof of vaccination.
7. Cattle must be vaccinated against Bovine Respiratory Disease Complex (shipping fever, etc. Vaccination must include immunization against bovine viral diarrhea (BVD), bovine respiratory syncytial virus (BRSV), infectious bovine rhinotracheitis (IBR), and Parainfluenza (PI3) with a product administered in a manner and time frame adequate to confer protective immunity for these diseases for the duration of fair.
8. Observe milk and meat drug/vaccine labeled withholding times. (Usually 21 days is required between giving a rabies shot and slaughter and 21 days on the Bovine Respiratory shots.)
9. Out of state animals coming to the fair must satisfy import health and test requirements for that species. The interstate health chart is valid for 30 days from the date of issuance with regard to entrance into New York State. Import test requirements are different for different states, based on diseases that are found in that state. For more detailed information contact N. Y. S. Department of Ag and Markets at 518-457-3971 or online at www.agmkt.ny.us.
10. If any sheep or goat within a flock shows evidence of Soremouth, the whole flock must be removed from the fairgrounds.

BIOSECURITY AT THE FAIR

These practices contribute to keeping your animals healthy and help to protect Wyoming County Agriculture. Adapted from California Department of Food and Agriculture, Biosecurity at the Fair brochure.

BIOSECURITY BEFORE THE FAIR

Disease prevention and fair biosecurity start before exhibitors leave home. Only healthy animals should be entered in the fair. Before animals leave the home premises, the herd or flock veterinarian should examine each animal to ensure healthy animals enter the fairgrounds. Tools and equipment may harbor disease agents. To minimize potential disease spread from the home premises to the fair, before packing for transport, clean and disinfect: Feed equipment: buckets, feeders, hay racks. Cleaning utensils: shovels, pitch forks and wheelbarrows. Grooming equipment: clippers and brushes. Vehicle and trailer (inside and outside).

BIOSECURITY AT THE FAIR

To protect fair animals and minimize disease transmission risk while at the fair: Limit animal-animal contact. Limit animal-human-animal contact. Avoid sharing equipment with other exhibitors unless you thoroughly clean and disinfect between use. Cover feed and equipment to reduce risk of contamination. Change clothing, hats, and shoes used at the fair before doing chores at home. At the end of the fair, clean all animals returning home and disinfect all equipment before loading the trailer. Unused feed, hay and bedding should be discarded at the fairgrounds, not taken home.

BIOSECURITY AFTER THE FAIR

The possibility of animal exposure to disease agents can occur with even the best biosecurity practices at the fair. Since they may be harboring disease agents without clinical signs, animals returning from the fair should be isolated from other animals and pets. Monitor animals in isolation daily for signs of illness and contact the herd or flock veterinarian if any unusual symptoms are observed. To minimize the possible chance of disease spread to the main herd or flock, modify your chore routine to care for isolated fair animals last. Keep equipment used in caring for isolated fair animals away from other animals in the herd or flock. Change your clothes after completing chores for isolated animals. Consult your veterinarian to develop an isolation plan suitable for your premises and herd or flock. Use of fair biosecurity is a good management practice.

MEAT ANIMAL MID-WAY WEIGHT CHECK

Saturday, July 19th

10am – 12pm at the Wyoming County Fairgrounds

You will be responsible for offloading, getting your animals to and from the scales, and reloading them on your truck or trailer. This is totally optional but a good opportunity if you are unsure of how your project animals are doing in terms of weight.

*Beef cattle must be well halter broke if you plan to utilize this option

*Vets must inspect entire flock/herd for sheep and goat CVTs - if you have additional sheep and/or goats at home, this is NOT a good option for fair Health charts; you should contact your vet directly!
Contact Holly in the 4-H office with any questions for more details.

Biosecurity for Horse Events

Any time horses are congregated at events, owners increase the chance that their horses may be exposed to an infectious disease agent. An example is EHV-1. Pathogens may be brought to and spread at an event by horses, people, domestic animals other than horses, vehicles, equipment, insects, ticks, birds, wildlife including rodents, feed, waste and water. By following these simple guidelines, you can help minimize that risk.

- Consult your veterinarian to establish an appropriate vaccination program for your horse(s).
- Tie your horse(s) to your trailer. If using a stall, clean and disinfect it, if possible, before stalling your horse. Always use clean, fresh bedding.
- Minimize your horse(s) having direct contact with unknown horses, especially nose to nose contact.
- Use your own water and feed buckets. Avoid letting your horse(s) drink from a communal water trough. Fill water buckets from a faucet.
- Do not share grooming equipment or tack. If you must, then wash and disinfect it before returning to your own horse(s).
- Avoid petting and touching other horses in order to minimize the risk of transferring a disease back to your horse. If you must handle other horses then wash your hands or use hand sanitizer.
- Avoid letting strangers pet your horse especially if they have horses of their own.
- Before returning home from an event clean up your equipment (boots, tack, grooming supplies, buckets, etc.) to help reduce the risk of transporting an infectious agent back home. Consider washing and disinfecting your trailer when you return home.
- If possible, isolate your returning horses for 2 weeks or at least prevent nose to nose contact with your other horses.

Don't forget to consult your veterinarian concerning these and other steps you can follow which may reduce the risk of your horse acquiring an infectious disease while traveling.
